REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Plaintiff HOWARD LEE BARNES, acting pro se and while a prisoner incarcerated in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Institutional Division, has filed suit pursuant to Title 42, United States Code, section 1983 complaining against the above-named defendant(s) and has submitted a declaration in support of application to proceed in forma pauperis.

Under the “three strikes” provision of the Prison Litigation Reform Act, a prisoner who has had three prior actions or appeals, brought during detention, dismissed as frivolous, malicious, or for failure to state a claim, is barred from further proceeding in forma pauperis in such actions, unless the case fits into the narrow exception enumerated in Title 28, United States Code, section 1915(g). A prisoner who has sustained three dismissals qualifying under the “three strikes” provision may still pursue any claim, “but he or she must do so without the aid of the i.f.p. procedures.” Adepegba v. Hammons, 103 F.3d 383 (5th Cir. 1996).

The Court notes that plaintiff BARNES has sustained at least three dismissals which fulfill the "three strikes" provision of the PLRA. Cause no. 6:97-CV-880 was dismissed by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, Tyler Division, on April 15, 1998, as frivolous and for failure to state a claim, and plaintiff's subsequent appeal was dismissed on November 12, 1999; Cause no. 1:97-CV-157 was dismissed for frivolousness and failure to state a claim by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, Beaumont Division, on November 13, 1998, and no appeal was taken; and Cause no. 6:98-CV-141 was dismissed by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, Tyler Division, as frivolous and for failure to state a claim on October 19, 1998, and plaintiff's subsequent appeal was dismissed on January 14, 2000.

Pursuant to Title 28, United States Code, 1915(g), the Magistrate Judge FINDS plaintiff HOWARD LEE BARNES may not proceed in forma pauperis in any further new filings or appeals filed while a prisoner unless grounds are argued in a motion for leave which fall within the limited exception enumerated in 28 U.S.C. 1915(g). Even if the instant cause were accompanied by the necessary motion, the grounds presented in the instant suit do not fall within the statutory exception.

Because plaintiff has already sustained the "three strikes" and can no longer avail himself of the provisions for proceeding in forma pauperis, it is the RECOMMENDATION of the Magistrate Judge to the United States District Judge that plaintiff's request to proceed in forma pauperis be denied and that the instant cause be dismissed for failure to pay the requisite filing fee.

Permission to proceed in forma pauperis is granted temporarily and solely for the purpose of allowing a Report and Recommendation to issue and be considered by the United States District Judge.

Plaintiff is advised that if he pays the $350.00 filing fee within fourteen (14) days after the filing date hereof, this Report and Recommendation of dismissal will be withdrawn.
